

Name of diver:	Name of dive club:
Contact details (address, phone no, e-mail) so we can feedback results:
Name of dive site:	Location (GPS mark or grid ref.):
Date of dive:	Dive start time:
Underwater visibility (m):	Sea Temperature (°C):
Did you take photographs?
Type of dive (shore/hard boat/RIB):
If RIB, please state boat length & engine size:

Species information: Please estimate abundance of each species over the whole dive site e.g. rare (R = only 1 or 2 seen, or less than 5% cover); occasional (O = quite a few seen, or 5-40% cover); or common (C = many seen, or 40-100% cover).

Species	R/O/C	Depth(s) of Sighting(s)	Identification accuracy (definite / probable / possible) Any photos taken?
Anglerfish, Lophius piscatorius
Bottlebrush hydroid, Thuiaria thuja
Cod, Gadus morhua
Deeplet Sea Anemone, Bolocera tuediae
Devonshire Cup Coral, Caryophyllia smithii
Edible Crab, Cancer pagurus
Jewel Anemone, Corynactis viridis
John Dory, Zeus faber
Lobster, Homarus gammarus
Lumpsucker, Cyclopterus lumpus
Wolf Fish, Anarhichas lupus

Additional sightings, comments &/or information:

Many Thanks for your Help!

Please return to the back of the dispenser on the St Abbs Harbour Master's hut, Scoutscroft Divers, Aquastars or post to: VMR Ranger, Ranger's Cottage, Northfield, St. Abbs, Berwickshire, TD14 5QF. For more information on the VMR or to contact the Marine Ranger please visit www.marine-reserve.co.uk.